ABOUT STEPHANIE WILKINSON

I was born in Brazil surrounded by palm fringed beaches, vibrant colours and seemingly endless sunshine. My great great grandfather was a coffee trader and, happily, he chose to settle in this idyllic spot, which influences my taste in colours, my love of travel and my art.

I've lived in London since the early 70s and also spent some years in Indonesia. What began as a hobby has developed through art school, and is now an exciting career with 20 years experience. My paintings are regularly exhibited in prestigious venues including a recent solo show at the Barbican Library, as well as Mall Galleries, Lightbox Gallery, Embassy of Brazil, Lloyds of London and many art fairs. It gives me great pleasure to share my work with you. Stephanie
