

TEN GREEN BOTTLES

Tuesday 20 March - Sunday 1 April 2018

STEPHANIE WILKINSON

paintings, prints, textiles, coasters

'Bottle Mural', a dramatic new painting measuring 3.6 metres wide, features in this new exhibition. An assortment of bottles, teapots, jugs, bowls and other vessels sit on a very long shelf in front of a tiled background inspired by a visit to Lisbon. Also showing is 'Bottles Everywhere' pictured above and other originals and hand-painted prints. New floral tea towels in lime and lilac use Stephanie's first repeat pattern design 'Night Garden', bringing a touch of Spring to any kitchen. The range of soft art cushions expands, now with bespoke labels. Coasters and cards make lovely little gifts too. More paintings are currently showing at Stables Gallery, behind Orleans House, Twickenham. Her next show will be at the Landmark Spring Art Fair 18-20 May.

CARMELA KANTOROWICZ

wheel-thrown ceramics

Fresh from exhibiting at London Potters Local Studio Pottery Fair at the Normansfield Theatre, Carmela presents her latest collection of beautiful ceramics. This includes a variety of raku bottle forms in neutral black and white, or vibrant hues of green and turquoise with the occasional burst of metallic lustre. Also included is a range of functional stoneware pottery for use in the kitchen. Carmela will be taking part in the Surrey Artists Open Studios in June.
